

It is the role of the Cook and Cooks Assistants to provide the best ever sausage sandwich available at a Newcastle Cross Country event

Start Time – 1:30pm or earlier if required for some races

Qualifications

A sense of humour and the ability to cook a BBQ for 200 people with a minimum of fuss, and not burn the sausages.

The cooking must commence 15 minutes prior to the start of the run.

Duties

It is the responsibility of the Head Cook to purchase the meat, onions, bread, sauce, serviettes, oil and gas.

It is the responsibility of the Head Cook to set up the BBQ in an area which does not impede the run and in such a manner that it is safe for children to approach to be served.

It is the responsibility of the Head Cook to cook the BBQ.

It is the responsibility of the Head Cook to put all the equipment away.

It is the responsibility of the Cooks Assistant to set up the tables, organise the serving area, remind the Head Cook of their duties

It is the responsibility of the Cooks Assistant to serve the food.

It is the responsibility of the Cooks Assistant to clean the surrounding area of any rubbish at the end of the run.

Equipment

The BBQ and gas bottle are stored in the trailer.

The cooking implements are stored in the trailer.

All items must be cleaned before returning them to the trailer.